

The Cheyenne Ridge Homeowners Association (CRHOA) is a voluntary association whose purpose is to preserve and enhance the character of the area, to serve as a spokes-group to The City of Edmond, to promote exchange of ideas within the neighborhood related to common interests, to uphold plat restrictions, to encourage and promote safety and property protection, to maintain common properties, and to promote social activities in the neighborhood. Your participation by paying dues and volunteering is vital to this purpose.

EMAIL INFORMATION: Whether you rent or own . . . please help us keep costs down by providing your email address to the association below or online at www.CheyenneRidgeEdmond.org. This will allow us the opportunity to send important information to you regarding Cheyenne Ridge. Your email address will NOT be published in our neighborhood directory. Emails will only be used to keep you informed with neighborhood notifications, lost and found pets, etc. You also have the option to unsubscribe from the email service at any time.

CHEYENNE RIDGE GENERAL MEETING: Join us for the Neighborhood Association “Halloween in April” General Meeting on Saturday, April 23, 3:00 PM - 4:00 PM, at Marked Tree Drive and Smoky Hollow. Bring a lawn chair and join us! Hamburgers, hot dogs, lemonade, and cookies will be provided. This is an opportunity for the neighborhood to ask questions, express concerns, learn more about future goals, and become involved by volunteering. In case of rain, we will meet at Lynn Gaither’s home, 3803 Marked Tree Drive.
